

Intermediate Training Seminars

HLPA's Intermediate Level Training Seminars have been specifically designed to allow more time for more in-depth discussion and debate than the regular general meetings can provide. Places are strictly limited and will be allocated to the first 20 practitioner members per seminar paying the fee of £35.00 in full. HPLA seminars have been awarded 2 hours' CPD by the Law Society and the Bar Council.

This seminar is aimed at helping practitioners to identify what evidence needs to be obtained and/or information provided at the homelessness review stage to ensure that any future appeal has the best chances of success. The seminar will be of value to all housing practitioners, including HPLA's less experienced members.

Please allocate me one place at the above seminar. I enclose a cheque for the registration fee of £35.00.

Cheques should be made payable to "Housing Law Practitioners Association" and must accompany this form. Registration forms submitted without payments will not be accepted. Places will not be allocated to any person who is not a current paid-up member of the Association (either as an individual member or group member).
